

In residency: Sabine Roemer

ARTIST, VISIONAIRE, MASTER GOLDSMITH, SCULPTOR AND JEWELER

Master gold- and silversmith, sculptor, and jeweler Sabine Roemer marks 30 years of extraordinary artistry, showcasing some of her most iconic pieces that highlight her transformative journey. Marking a milestone in Sabine Roemer's illustrious career, luxury department store Bergdorf Goodman in New York will be hosting a month-long curated selection of her most iconic works.

From her beginnings in a small Black Forest workshop in 1995 to becoming the go-to commissioned among VIPs and celebrities, from Angelina Jolie, Morgan Freeman, Football and Movie stars to Royals like the late HRH Queen Elizabeth II and the Queen Silvia of Sweden. Roemer's career embodies a passion for pushing creative boundaries.

"From the moment I stepped into that workshop, I knew I'd found my life's calling. The memories captured in metal are like collectible stories that can be cherished forever."
